

Study Tour to Greece, 12-14th October 2018

The British Group of IABSE is arranging a study tour to Greece to visit some of the country's most distinguished and multi-award winning structures being accompanied by renowned Academics and Professional Engineers. The trip will unveil both historic and modern aspects of those structures. The plans are as follows:

Dates: Friday 12th October to Sunday 14th October, 2018.

Itinerary: the preliminary programme of the trip is:

Friday 12th; travel by coach to the Olympic Stadium of Athens, the National Technical University of Athens (NTUA), the Panathenaic Stadium and the Stavros Niarchos Foundation Cultural Centre (SNFCC). The day will end by having dinner at the famous restaurant at the top floor of the Acropolis Museum overlooking the Parthenon!

Saturday 13th; travel by coach to the Corinth Canal and the Rion-Antirion Bridge

Sunday 14th; visit the Acropolis & the Museum

Hosts: Ioannis Sigalas, Charis Gantes and Ioannis Spinakas from the Executive Committee of the Hellenic Group of IABSE, and representatives from Greek companies and the NTUA.

Accommodation: registration fees do not include accommodation, but the meeting point for all activities will be the Athens Gate hotel. Thus, we highly recommend the participants to book accommodation in this hotel, although they are free to choose their preferred accommodation. An important note on booking the hotel is included at the end of the document (please read carefully before booking).

Participant fees*:

Type of delegate	IABSE members	Young IABSE members (<35)	Non-members
Fee per person	£180	£130	£250

*Prices do not account for strong EUR-GBP exchange rate variations, and may need to increase if GBP is depreciated.

Persons accompanying IABSE members (e.g. partners) are treated as IABSE members.

Prices DO NOT include: flights to Athens, accommodation, meals (excluding the dinner at the Acropolis Museum restaurant, which is included in the participant fee), transportation between the airport and the hotel.

Prices include: rented coach on all days, tickets to museums and the corresponding guided tours, formal dinner at the Acropolis Museum restaurant (see attached menu at the end of this document).

Flights: multiple options exist to fly from different locations in the UK to Athens, with return tickets starting from £60. Flights are not included in the participant fees, and each participant must make their own arrangements. A list of airlines flying from the UK to Athens are included at the end of the document, so well as, an important note on the booking procedure (please read before booking).

Registration: to book a place, make the participant fee payment to the IABSE BG in the bank account indicated on the next page, complete the attached application form and return it to Elina Efthymiou (eleftheria-anthi.efthymiou@city.ac.uk). Places will be allocated strictly on a first come first served basis. Deadline: for registration is the 20th of July of 2018 or when 25 participants have registered (a minimum of 15 delegates will be required to secure the study tour).

Before booking flights and accommodation: please wait until you receive the confirmation from Elina Efthymiou that the study tour will take place since 15 is the minimum number of participants that need to register to go ahead with the trip.

Cancellations Policy: 50% of the participant fee will be refunded in cancellations made before the 1st of September. Cancellations made after the 1st of September will not be refundable at all. In case the minimum number of participants (15) is not reached, the cost of the registration fee will be refunded integrally to each registered participant.

IABSE DOES NOT provide any travel insurance to attendees, and participants should be responsible for taking out their own insurance.

More information: contact Elina Efthymiou from City, University of London at eleftheria-anthi.efthymiou@city.ac.uk or 077 0791 3656 regarding any query.
